

TIME FOR JUDGING WAR NOT RIPE, SAYS TILSON

Outcome Will Reveal Truth,
President Tells Maryland
Methodist Conference

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 9.—In a speech before the Maryland annual conference of the Methodist Protestant church in session here last night, President Wilson said it was his belief that no man was wise enough to pronounce judgment on the European war at this time.

"But," he added, "we can all hold our spirits in readiness to accept the truth when it is revealed to us in the outcome of this titanic struggle."

The president reminded the delegates that in transacting the business of their church they like the men in charge of the nation's government, were, in reality, handling "the phases of the day."

"You are handling the affairs of the church as they stand under the great sun of the new generation," he said. "Back of them lies the eternal principle which you are trying to exemplify in the life of the work; back of us here in the government is the eternal principle of justice and of goodness, which in my conviction, at any rate, we do not derive from ourselves, but from the same source which a great church derives its inspiration and authority."

"It seemed to me that it was worth saying something like this. Things like this, days of very great perplexity, when a great cloud of trouble hangs and broods over the greater part of the world, seem as if great blind material forces had been released which had for long been held in leash and restraint. And yet underneath that you can see the strong impulses of great ideas. It would be impossible, ladies and gentlemen, for men to go through what we are going through on the battle fields of Europe and struggle through the darkest dark night of their history, if it were not that they saw, or thought that they saw, the breaking of light where the morning should come up, and each on his side of the contest for some eternal principle of right."

"Then all about them, all about us, there sits the silent, waiting tribunal which is going to utter the ultimate judgment upon this struggle, the great tribunal of the opinion of the world, and I fancy I see, I hope that I see, I pray that it may be that I do truly see, great spiritual forces lying waiting for the outcome of this thing. I assert themselves, and asserting themselves even now, to enlighten our judgment and steady our spirits. No man is wise enough to pronounce judgment, but we can all hold our spirits in readiness to accept the truth when it dawns on us and is revealed to us in the outcome of this titanic struggle."

"You will see that it is only in such a serious sense that one can speak, in the midst of a confused world, because, as I have already said, no man has the key to this confusion. No man can see the outcome, but every man can keep his own spirit prepared to contribute to the result when the outcome displays itself."

"That is the reason I said to a body similar to this only a few nights ago that I welcomed the answer which these solemn assessments of the human spirit bring to Washington, for this is the phase of assessment. In one sense Washington is not even a part of the United States. It is where everybody else comes and sooner or later speaks his mind about the United States, and about many outlying parts of the world. Mr. Bryan and I are constantly auditors of what I dare say is a large part of the opinion of the world, to judge by the time it takes to express it. I think a very large part, and to judge by the variety and contrariety of it, I think it is a fair representation of what men are thinking about."

"Secretary of State Bryan followed the president with an address of welcome to the visiting clergy. His remarks were confined strictly to a large part of the "three great relationships" which he characterized as "government, society and religion, or man's relation to God." Great and important as all these relationships were, Mr. Bryan said he believed religion was most imperative to the welfare of a nation.

Stubborn Mules in Coal Mines Cause Strike of 1,300 Men

(By Associated Press.)
WILKESBARE, Pa., April 9.—Stubborn and sturdy mules were responsible for a strike of 1,200 employees of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company yesterday, which completely tied up the operations.

The company issued an order directing the men to enter and leave one of the veins through the main gateway instead of by cutters and cross-cuts. The miners objected to the order, declaring they were compelled to carry dynamite into the chamber and that because of the presence of "stubborn and unruly mules in the gangways, our lives are endangered." Officers of the company declined to rescind the order and the men went on strike.

BABSON, IN PERU, SEES SOME STRANGE SIGHTS

Cattle Kept in by Ring of Stones a Foot High,
They're Lazy

(By Associated Press.)
LIMA, Peru, April 10.—Yesterday I went into the mountains and saw the native Indians living and working. I saw mules actually treading out the grain with their hoofs as in old Bible times. I saw the caravans coming in from the desert as they came from northern Africa. But of all that I saw you what made the greatest impression on me.

In front of each tiny adobe hut in which lives a family of Indians is a round corral twenty feet in diameter and bordered with a few stones loosely piled around and to make a rough wall about a foot high. I saw these miniature corals thus in front of each native hut. Upon asking, I found they are to keep the stock in at night. The animals have so little life that they will not step over these few stones.

But let me tell you something more. The chief head of the herd, out here in the mountains is the llama, an animal which looks like a great big sheep with a long neck and a small head. The llamas feed and take care of themselves. Hence, they appear quite to these lazy people.

Imagine a good North American horse-drawn by any other kind of animal being kept out of the corn by a round corral twenty feet in diameter and bordered with a few stones loosely piled around and to make a rough wall about a foot high. Imagine these animals standing in one spot for hours and hours and not moving. I found the difference between the animals of North and South America is no greater than that between the men. As I travel about the world I am convinced that the men and the men have the same traits. In view of this let me say—before going further—that the trouble with South America is with the men and women of this southern continent. They are good natured, but they are not friendly, but lack initiative; they are well-intentioned, but have no initiative. Peru, Ecuador, Colombia and Venezuela especially need a new race of people.

Moreover, my say that these Indians will never amount to much until there is a heavy immigration from the cold and sturdy countries of Europe. The geographers tell about the country of the Indians. They are mostly Indians. These Indians live in wretched huts made of bamboo covered with adobe. The whole in the roof for the smoke to go out. Many of these Indians live in some of caves or dugouts in the side of cliffs. Although apparently happy and well fed, they must be miserable.

Unlike the Indians and natives of the West Indies, these Indians of Peru can not live on wild coconuts, bananas and bread fruit, for such things do not grow in western and central Peru, according to irrigated land. Hence, most of these Indians are poor and live on the roots for others at about 10 to 15 cents per day.

These Peruvian cities are very interesting. Travelers make a great mistake in judging Peru by the coast cities of Callao, Mollino, Arica, Iquitos, Antofagasta and the like. These port cities are uninteresting, temporary affairs, containing simply shipping, cargo and living to the coast. The most interesting Peruvian cities are Cuzco, Arequipa, Iquitos and the like. These are the centers to which the natives bring their wares and here the real life can be seen.

Cuzco which was the capital of the old Inca nation is both interesting and important today. Here contained a nation which one numbered 750,000, or 15,000,000 people, and which I believe was at its height 5,000 or more years ago. Peru is the Egypt of the Americas, and the center of the world.

Quito is another old town, 7,500 feet high, with beautiful air and typical Peruvian climate. It is a city of just over 100,000 people, very interesting and a very fine city. This city is at the very foot of the Andes. When spectators in the hot sun on the old plaza of the city, I could see the snow-capped mountain of El Misti just behind it, and I am blamed for the earthquakes from the old town now and then suffer.

NATIONAL CREDIT MEN TO FIGHT BIG FRAUDS

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 9.—The National Association of Credit Men announced today that circulars are being sent to the 15,000 members of the association throughout the United States in an effort to raise a fund of $500,000, the income of which is to be used for the prosecution of commercial frauds. J. Harry Tregoe, the secretary-treasurer of the association, has designated April 22 and 23 the days on which the various branches of the organization are to give special attention to the raising of the fund. This movement grows out of the necessity of combating schemes of adventurers who cleverly laid out as to require careful investigation. The association intends to be stated, to establish a department of investigation, and prosecution which will co-operate with local associations and aid them with funds.

HERO McNEIL REFUSED MEDAL BY CARNEGIE

Dock Laborer Has Saved 25 From Drowning—What Is a Hero?

BY KENNETH W. PAYNE.
NEW YORK.—What is a hero? Do you think the answer's easy? Then ponder the story of Peter McNeil, dock laborer and infatigable savior of other people's lives at great risk to his own.

Twenty-five times in the last sixteen years has Peter McNeil plunged, fully clad into the swirling water of the Hudson river and rescued struggling persons from drowning.

And now the Carnegie hero fund commission has just refused McNeil a hero medal.

His acts, says the commission in a letter received by him, the other day, are "merely commendable"—not heroic—and will not grant him any share in the Carnegie hero fund gold.

Do you think McNeil is a hero—or not so readily foolish?

Do you agree with McNeil's wife, who told a Journal correspondent: "My husband is a hero, more like him to go and risk his precious life like that and save little children of his own to be taken care of here at home. Sure, what would we all do if Mr. McNeil hadn't come back one day from his pretty little jump into the river to drag me out? That's what had been fool enough to tumble in."

Do you agree with the treasury department of the federal government, and with the office of controller of the state of New York, each of which has recently awarded a silver medal to McNeil for the acts which they believe heroic?

Is McNeil a hero? What is a hero, anyway, and what is an heroic act? Here are two of the most spectacular exploits from the long list of McNeil's sensational rescues. Were they great bits of heroism, or only recklessness?

Two carpenters were working on the steamer City of Lawrence, at a Hudson river dock. One had gone into the paddle-box to repair the blades. McNeil was standing by the opening through which the carpenter had entered, when suddenly the huge paddle wheel began to turn over. The engineer was testing his engine.

The carpenter was flung helplessly down among the blades and braces. In an instant he would have been crushed to death. McNeil leaped in after him, grabbed the luckless man and clung with him to a blade. Around and around he whirled, gasping, battered and dashed into the water, now lifted high in the air. When word finally reached the engineer and the wheel was stopped, as fate would have it McNeil and his unconscious burden were clinging to the lowest blade—seven feet under water.

McNeil still had the presence of mind to break the carpenter's death grip on the paddle, and to dive outward with one mighty effort, and swimming desperately clear the wheel and ever-hanging paddle box and get his man to the surface. Here he sustained him till a ladder and rope were let down to rescue them!

On another occasion, only a few years ago, four-year-old Johnny White fell off a new ferry dock, at the foot of Duane street, into a great body of water, which was left there at low tide. He was drawn deeper into its slimy depths, just at that moment McNeil came along and dove headlong after the hero.

He went clear under when he hit—fear the stuff was like soft chocolate ice cream," said McNeil's own words. One could neither walk nor swim in it.

But the rescuer fought his way up to the surface again, and when he appeared he had the child in his arms! Then he gave a grim fight with the choking mud which slowly drew the two deeper and deeper into the slimy depths. Just in time a rope was thrown to McNeil and he was dragged to the dock. The child was dead. McNeil was hardly better off.

Last summer McNeil rescued three men from drowning in less than one month!

The first deed occurred one night when two sailors who could not swim fell into the gap between the excursion steamer Oriental and the dock, and she was dragged to the dock. The child was dead. McNeil was hardly better off.

HIGHWAY MUST NOT FAIL, RALSTON TELLS GOV. RYE

Believes Taggart, Howell and Others Will Bring Harmony Out of Confusion

By Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 9.—Governor Rye's movement for Dixie highway must not fail, was the message Governor Rye sent today to Governor Rye, of Tennessee.

The Tennessee executive yesterday telegraphed Governor Rye questioning the advisability of proceeding under the highway adopted at the recent governors' conference at Chattanooga. In view of the action taken by U. S. E. James, as president of the Dixie Highway association, ignoring appointees of governors and undertaking to fix the route.

Governor Rye's reply follows: "Governor movement for Dixie highway must not fail Taggart and Fisher; Howell and Anderson with their associate commissioners will bring harmony out of confusion. Patience and a conciliatory spirit are essential."

Thomas Taggart, Democratic national committeeman, and Carl G. Fisher, millionaire sportsman, are the Indiana highway commissioners named by Governor Rye last night. Clark Howell and W. T. Anderson, the governor said, are the Georgia commissioners.

Convict in Floyd Escapes and Takes Bloodhounds Along

(Special Dispatch to The Journal)
ROME, Ga., April 9.—Walter Simmons, a negro, escaped from the Floyd county convict camp today, taking with him bloodhounds belonging to the camp. This made his pursuit difficult but he was finally captured near Caye Spring.

But the rescuer fought his way up to the surface again, and when he appeared he had the child in his arms! Then he gave a grim fight with the choking mud which slowly drew the two deeper and deeper into the slimy depths. Just in time a rope was thrown to McNeil and he was dragged to the dock. JUDGE J. R. WILKINSON BURIED IN WEST VIEW

Hundreds of Friends Pay Last Respects to Honored
Jurist

Funeral services of Judge John R. Wilkinson, for fourteen years ordinary of Fulton county, thirty-third degree Mason and long-time resident of Atlanta, who died Wednesday night at his home, 43 Dixie avenue, Inman Park, were held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon from the First Baptist church.

Dr. Charles W. Daniel, the pastor, conducted the services, which were attended by hundreds, including judges of the state courts, many county and city officials, Atlanta Masons, Knights Templar and close personal friends of the family. The pallbearers were John R. Dickey, Thomas H. Jeffries, J. C. Greenfield, J. H. Porter, Andy P. Stewart and E. P. McIlhenny.

From the church to West View cemetery an honorary escort consisted of the judges and county officials of Fulton county, the officers and deacons of the First Baptist church, the Pastmasters' Association of Gate City lodge of Masonry, No. 1, and all pastmasters of Masonic lodges.

MONSTER SPRING PAGEANT AT AUDITORIUM SATURDAY

WOMAN TRIES TO ATTACK NEGRO FREED OF MURDER

Widow of W. E. Ormond in Hysterics When Jury Ac-
quits Husband's Slayer

When a jury in Judge Hill's division of Fulton superior court Thursday afternoon acquitted Tom Ballard, a negro, of the murder of W. E. Ormond, who was shot and killed on the night of November 30 while defending his wife and daughter from a bold burglar in their home, 43 Cooper street, Mrs. Ormond, who was in the court room, went into hysterics and attempted to make an attack on the negro, so violent was her grief and resentment.

Deputy Sheriff Plennie Miner took her, with her daughter, Miss Willie Ormond, and carried them out of the court house by a private exit, while other deputies escorted the negro from the building. Deputy Miner took Mrs. Ormond to a hospital in an ambulance, accompanied by her daughter, and she was attended by physicians.

The negro, who was represented by Attorney John Boykin, based his defense on the claim that he ran to the scene of the holdup to protect the ladies and shot Mr. Ormond by mistake, thinking, in the darkness and excitement, that Mr. Ormond was joining in the attack on the ladies when he ran to the scene with a gun. He succeeded in convincing the jury that this was the truth, and the jury acquitted him.

Two months ago the negro was found guilty and was sentenced by Judge Hill to life imprisonment. Attorney Boykin procured from Judge Hill a new trial on the ground that the negro had not been sufficiently identified as the one who did the shooting. On his second trial the negro admitted the shooting and explained it as an angry stated-Judge Hill expressed the opinion that the acquittal was justified.

HOW TO GAIN WEIGHT A POUND A DAY

This men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and see results. Here is a good test worth trying: First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how much you eat or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the next fourteen days by following this direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays on. Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mix with your food. It tones the fat, makes and stretches of what you have eaten, into rich, firm fat producing nourishment for the skin and blood—prevents it from being assimilated into which the blood can readily absorb. It is this enrichment now passes from your body to your skin. But Sargol does more than this; it enriches and makes the fat-producing contents of the very same cells. It is a healthy, safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Jacobs' Pharmacy and other leading druggists in Atlanta, Ga., and vicinity will sell it in large home-size tablets in a package—a guarantee of quality. Sargol is a product of the Sargol Chemical Co., New York, N. Y.

THREE PRETTY HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS who will take part in the spring pageant which the Girls' High school and the English Commercial High school will give Saturday night at the auditorium. The dancers are, left to right: Miss Lois Jones, Miss Nellie Bosworth and Miss Gertrude Orr, all members of the first grade, Girls' High school.

MRS. W. H. YEANDLE, AGED RESIDENT, PASSES AWAY

Dies Suddenly of Heart Disease at Home of Daughter-in-Law

Mrs. William Henry Yeandle, of 212 Capitol avenue, a resident of Alabama more than a quarter of a century and a most lovable woman, who was prominent in church and social organizations and who enjoyed the affection and friendship of a host of people, died suddenly at midnight Thursday at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Henry Yeandle, Jr., in Ormeau.

Mrs. Yeandle was sixty years of age and was in good health almost up to the moment of her death. She was stricken with heart failure shortly after retiring for the night and died in a few minutes. The suddenness of her death was a severe shock to her family and will be received with surprise and grief by many friends.

Mrs. Yeandle was a member of St. Philip's cathedral and took an active part in many lines of parish work. She was a member of the D. A. R. and was a past regent of the Piedmont Continental chapter of that organization. There were few better known or more popular women in the community.

She leaves her husband and two sons, the latter being William Henry Yeandle, Jr., who is now in Mexico City, and Stephen Yeandle, who is a lieutenant in the United States navy, stationed at Seattle, Wash.

German Submarine Base Is Located on Coast of Norway

(By Associated Press.)
COPENHAGEN, April 9.—(Via London.)—Norwegian alarm according to the Norwegian coast investigation bureau that a German submarine base was located in some sheltered spot of these neutral waters, found several German submarines gathered behind the cliffs at Bergen bay.

The submarines were ordered to leave immediately or else be informed for the remainder of the war. The body will be removed to the residence, 212 Capitol avenue, Friday afternoon, and the funeral will take place at St. Philip's cathedral Sunday afternoon, the exact hour to be announced later. Interment will be at West View cemetery.

Certainty! Dull, Faded or Lifeless Hair Can Be Quickly Restored to Its Natural Beauty

If your hair is anything short of perfect, if it is losing color, falling out, thin, or if the scalp burns and itches, you should immediately begin the use of Parisian Sage. The first application of this safe and always reliable tonic removes every trace of dandruff, cools and invigorates the scalp and beautifies the hair until it is glossy and radiant.

Parisian Sage supplies all hair needs and does not injure either the hair or scalp. It contains the exact elements needed to make the hair soft and wavy, and to make it grow long and beautiful. It is a delicately perfumed liquid—not sticky or greasy—that can be had at Jacob's 11 store, or any drug center.

Parisian Sage acts instantly—once application stops the head from itching and freshens up the hair. You will be surprised and delighted with this safe toilet necessity, for nothing else is so good for the hair and scalp, nothing so quickly beautifies the hair, giving it that enviable charm and fashion. Parisian Sage is one of the most effective acting hair tonics known—expensive and easily used in the bottle. (Adv.)

EAT LESS AND TAKE
SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with acid which the kidneys strive to clear out. They weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative process and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts or the urine is bloody, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times each day, or you suffer from dizziness, headache or dizzy, nervous, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Dr. Fexell's salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for two days and your kidneys will then act freely. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate of soda, and is the best and most powerful for purifying the blood, neutralizing the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates the urinary tract, thus ending bladder disorders. Dr. Fexell's salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful after-dinner drink, a delicious, refreshing, and belongs in the home, because it makes a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time. (Advt.)

It is Just Natural
To Admire Babies

Our altruistic nature impels love for the young infant. And at the same time the subject of motherhood is ever before us. To know what to do that will add to the physical comfort of expectant motherhood is a subject that has interested most women of all times. One of the real beautiful things is an external abdominal application under the name of "Mother's Friend." We have known so many grandmothers who in their younger days relied upon this remedy, and who recommended it to their own daughters that it certainly must be what its name indicated. They have used it for the direct relief from the muscles, cords, ligaments and tendons as it aims to afford relief from the aching and often unnecessarily severe during the period of expectancy.

A little book mailed by Bradfield's Regulator Co., 265 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., refers to many things that women like to read about. It refers not only to the relief from the aching and often unnecessarily severe during the period of expectancy. It also contains many other valuable hints and suggestions for the mother-to-be. It is a book that every woman should have. It is a book that every woman should have. It is a book that every woman should have.

AMERICAN HELD AS SPY BY LONDON AUTHORITIES

Three Men Charged With
Using Invisible Ink to Tell
Army Secrets

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, April 9.—Charged with sending military information to Germany by means of invisible ink, three men have been arrested and will be tried in a civil court. The authorities intimate that the case is one of grave importance.

One of the suspects, named Kuepfeler, professes to be an American. Another, Muller, claims he is a naturalized Englishman. The third, who gives the name of Hahn, admits he is a German subject.

Kuepfeler came here from the United States, first visiting Dublin and then coming to London, where he is said to have been awaiting passage across the channel.

Raymond Swoboda is

Taken to Military Prison

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, April 9.—Raymond Swoboda, charged with espionage and arson in connection with the fire aboard the steamship La Touraine, was interrogated yesterday before the second permanent court martial here. His preliminary examination concerned only the question of his identity. He protested vigorously against his arrest and declared himself ready to face any charges which might be brought against him. He will be transferred from the Conciergerie prison to a military jail.

The Cause

(By Associated Press.)
"Hear me! Poor woman," said Higgins, reading his morning paper. "I see that Mrs. Higgins has lost her husband."

"Indeed?" cried Mrs. Higgins. "What was the cause of her death?"

"Neither," said Higgins.

WOMEN VOTERS URGED TO RALLY FOR SUFFRAGE

Mrs. Belmont Issues Appeal for Them to Attend Convention in September

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 9.—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, chairman of the committee on woman voters' convention of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, today issued an appeal intended to reach the 4,000,000 woman voters of the suffrage states and rally them to the support of the Congressional Union's campaign for a federal suffrage amendment.

She urged the women to attend the convention to be held in San Francisco, September 11 to 16, to discuss plans for this campaign. In her appeal Mrs. Belmont declared:

"There are now approximately 4,000,000 women voters. One-fourth of the national senate, one-sixth of the house of representatives and one-fifth of their electoral vote comes from suffrage states. With this leverage in congress, the national suffrage amendment could speedily be passed if the woman voters would unite in its support."

N. O. SKIRT FIRM WILL LOCATE BRANCH HERE

The waist and skirt manufacturing department of the Davison-Paxon-Stokes company has been purchased by the Scheer Skirt Manufacturing company. The latter firm and the latter firm will establish in Atlanta a very large branch which bids fair within a short time to equal in size the main factory in New Orleans.

The plant will be located at 136 Marietta street. A manager will be sent here from New Orleans and operation will commence next Monday.

Morris Scheer, president of the company, was in the city Thursday closing the trade with Davison-Paxon-Stokes company, and he stated that his company plan to make the factory one of Atlanta's largest industries.

INTERMENT OF EITEL AWAITS SAILOR'S FUNERAL

Member of Crew Killed by Fall
Buried in Newport News
With Military Honors

(By Associated Press.)
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., April 9.—American and German naval officers and sailors this morning joined in paying a last tribute to Maximilian Eitel, a member of the crew of the German cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who was killed in a fall on the Eitel Wednesday night and whose funeral was held here this morning at 10 o'clock.

The dead sailor was buried with full military honors, the ceremonies being in charge of Lieutenant J. H. Ingram, of the United States battleship Alabama. The procession to the grave, led by the band from the Prinz Eitel, was composed of all the officers, Captain Thierichsen, 200 unarmed sailors and 20 armed sailors from the German cruiser and a company of 10 armed sailors from the battleship Alabama.

The civil authorities of the United States were represented by Collector of Customs Norman R. Hamilton. Following the reading of the full German Presbyterian service by Father Bruning, of Old Point, three volleys were fired over the grave by the armed band from the Prinz Eitel.

Prof. Wind was a native of Cammin, Germany, fell from a ladder on the Prinz Eitel Wednesday night, and died a few hours later from a fractured skull. That the men and officers from the cruiser might attend the funeral today the expected departure of the Prinz Eitel for the Portsmouth navy yard yesterday afternoon was delayed until this afternoon.

Contrasting the funeral days played by the Eitel's band while accompanying the body of their dead shipmate to the cemetery this morning were the lively martial airs played by the band on the march back to the ship. It was the first real spirit shown by the German.

FRENCHMAN WINS IN DRAMATIC AIR DUEL

Roland Garros Brings Down
German Aircraft After Thrilling Battle

(By Associated Press.)
FURNES, Belgium, (via Paris), April 9.—A dramatic air duel, in which a German aircraft was brought down inside the allied lines by Roland G. Garros, a famous French aviator, was described today by Major Raoul Pontus, son of the former Belgian minister of war, who witnessed the combat. The German at first rose above Garros' machine, but the Frenchman by a clever tactic escaped and then flew shop the German.

From this moment the German's position became critical," said Major Pontus. "Garros overtook him rapidly. Presently the crackling of a quick-firer showed the Frenchman judged himself sufficiently near to take the offensive. The German also used his carbine freely."

"Suddenly a long jet of white smoke gushed from the German machine and then a little flame which in an instant enveloped the whole aeroplane. Notwithstanding the extreme peril, the pilot took to flight, but his effort to escape was converted into a horrifying downward plunge. The aeroplane, a mass of flame, struck the ground with a sickening thud and a column of black smoke poured from it."

"The aviator, horribly burned, was dead when I reached them. The gas-tank contained two bullet holes."

mans since Wednesday when they learned their ship would be interned instead of attempting to put to sea.

SOROSIS SHOES

Nearly everyone knows the story of SOROSIS. It is resounding, immense.

The SOROSIS advertising is not incidental phrases. It is inspired by conviction and written in the boldest hand. Clear claims. Strong statements. Precise, exact, concise. It makes departures as if tired of being held back.

There is only one way of expressing a thing—one word to use, one adjective to qualify it, one verb to give it action.

In each advertisement we try to discover that word, that term, that turn. Commas and periods are merely halting places—short intervening spaces, in which the reader, by brief pauses, may grasp each thought without effort or fatigue.

A single word beneath the eye may strike like a fist. However, it is not always easy to find the right word. But when we find it, SOROSIS advertising becomes a construction, not a compilation; a description, not a catalogue.

THE ORGANIC form of all Shoes is alike—just as the organic form of all feet is alike.

However, there are pretty Shoes and commonplace Shoes—just as there are dainty, exquisite and aristocratic feet and crude, awkward, clumsy feet.

There is as much difference between SOROSIS and ordinary Shoes as there is between a picture and a design.

Focus—concentrate your eyes on a SOROSIS Shoe—at ANY point—blot out all other points—if you can. But you CANNOT, because the setting, the balance and the parallelism of the WHOLE Shoe are so perfect and complete that you can't make any ONE point a central point. Each curve and line is related to all the other curves and lines—all converging though not actually meeting. Hence the effect of SYMMETRY that SOROSIS SHOES suggest.

"SHOES." The very word once stood for restraint. In the old days every new pair of SHOES had to be "broken in."

This imposed an ordeal and implied pain.

There was no use trying to escape the bite of new Shoes. If they didn't bite, they pinched—and the effect was the same.

COMPRESSION was an eternal element of new Shoes. They crushed, crumpled and cramped the feet.

Then came SOROSIS SHOES and humanity gave a breath of relief—and walked easier.

Art and science wedded to create Footwear that blended BEAUTY with COMFORT. Out of the union were born SOROSIS SHOES—the despair of every rival.

The aesthetic ideal in Women's Footwear was given its initial and successful expression by the makers of SOROSIS SHOES. They broke the hide-bound traditions that put Shoes among the things that should be strong and practical without any thought of beauty.

All now know that Shoes can be beautiful without any loss of strength and utility.

The Best of the Season In Suits at $15 and $19.50

Tomorrow morning you will find on the racks in the Suit Section the smartest suits of the season at $15 and $19.50. A double force makes them so.

The suit chief now on his third trip of the season to New York sent us some of them.

Then we went through our own stocks and took out all the ones and twos of $18.75 and $19.50 suits and marked them $15; all the ones and twos of the $21.75 and $25 suits and marked them $19.50.

There are English checks, gabardines and serges and poplins in navy, Belgian blue and sand. A host of different styles that allow a critical choice—belted coats, short waisted affairs, severely tailored coats—and, of course, one variation after another of plaited and flare skirts.

New Coats in the Junior Department, Third Floor New Coats for Infants, New Coats for Girls, New Coats for Juniors

For Infants

Sizes one and two years.
Of white pique.
Belted styles and cape styles; some with hand-embroidered collars—all so fresh and crisp—mothers must like them.
Priced at $2.50 to $6.00.

For Girls

Sizes six to fourteen years.
Serges in navy and black and white checks.
Short-waisted styles, plain and belted. Little colored collars; military buttons. Smart!
Priced at $5.75 to $10.00.

For Juniors

A fine variety to choose from—and as they have just arrived they show novel styles. Checks, plaids and tan and blue serges. Empire designs in the loose, sport styles.
$12.50, $15.00 and $18.50.

A "Little" Clearaway of Corsets at 98c They Were Formerly Priced at $1.50 to $5

We use the word little advisedly.

There are more than six dozen corsets in the lot, and these are in small sizes.

But for those who do require small sizes an opportunity indeed.

In our regular stocks not one of these corsets was less than $1.50; from that they went to $5.00; but these remain from a special sale (at $1.19) when all but the small sizes were sold.

Coutils, batistes and a few brocades. Four and six hose supporters—in styles that slight figures require.

$1.50 Teddy Bears 98c

A fresh, crisp lot of novelty cloth Teddy Bears, so bought that we can sell them at 98c instead of $1.50. Neatly trimmed.

New Brassieres

and bust confiners of attractive designs and showing very neat trimmings, have just come in and are priced at 25c to $1.50.

CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN IN EVIDENCE EVERYWHERE

School Children Will Make Report on Monday of Pledges—Saturday

Atlanta's school children on Saturday will turn in the signed pledges they have secured from householders to clean up and paint up, and after these pledges have been counted and checked to eliminate duplication, the cash prizes offered by the chamber of commerce will be awarded.

Clean-up week began last Monday and has been the most successful on record, everywhere in the city people are taking trash and leaves and burning them, mowing and mowing lawns, painting fences, trimming trees, whitewashing fences, sprinkling disinfectants and cleaning their homes with a coat of paint.

The pledges which the school children have secured do not require the signers to clean up and paint up on a particular day or during a particular week, but do pledge them to do these things at the very earliest possible date before grand opera if they can.

Thus any household prevented for any reason from cleaning up this week will have the cause just as much by cleaning up next week, and everything will contribute to the beauty and health of Atlanta by keeping clean throughout the summer and throughout the year.

The Charm Inscrutable
(Judge.)
"Why do all the women wear their summer dresses during the black water season? It is that easy? So they can put their feet and velvet ones in the heat of July and August?"

Commercialized
(Judge.)
"Mrs. Crawford—Also your husband's objections to female suffrage practical?"
"The ladies—Perfectly practical, no doubt; they afraid there wouldn't be enough political reform to go around."

Postal Facilities
(Judge.)
"I don't like postmen and see if you can get them out of the post office?"
"I don't like the postmaster," replied the lady, "but I don't like the postmen either. I don't like them to be in the post office."

Your Money
Law & Safe Investment.
Don't let it be a buzz.
By John M. Oakman.

A good counselor of Wall street was talking to me about investment in stocks. He said:
"Tell people not to be in a hurry to buy. The average investor, an indifferent one from the steady speculator, doesn't put much money into stocks, and what he does invest in is apt to be the accumulation of months of years. He can very well afford to wait until he finds out about the stock market. The stock market is with us always. Tell your friends to study it carefully for a time before going into it. Tell them to put their money in a savings bank for six months and let it draw interest at 4 or 5 per cent. While they study the market actions of the stocks they think of buying. Suppose in this time the stock market should rise, the stock price to be sound—the increased price in that case will be a small tax on their ultimate profits."

It is good advice for all investors of small experience. An investment ought to have a market price—whether it be bonds, mortgages, commercial notes, farms, or city real estate. The market price of a safe and sound investment ought to be the whole, to rise when it says the depression ought not to be great, and it ought to be due perfectly logical and easily understandable causes.

Because of the seller who tries to hurry you into buying by saying that the market price of what he has to sell is going up. In most instances you'll find that he's wrong; and if it does go up consistently and lastingly over a period of months you may reasonably expect that after you buy it its rise will continue.

Don't be in a hurry. You can easily learn in an hour what has happened to accumulate. Look, listen, investigate! The financial history of investment ought to be the average buyer can be learned—usually the bank in which you have your money deposited can put you in the way of learning it. For every cent you invest find out before buying the investor will get back a dollar in safety and better returns.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" best for tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dome" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.
When your children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.
Your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleaning, give only delicate "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit taste" handy; they know children like to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given twice saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—(Adv.)

LORIMER LOSES FIGHT TO QUASH INDICTMENTS
Chicago Bank Officials Must Face Trial for Conspiracy to Wreck Institution.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, April 8.—William Lorimer, former United States senator, and other officials of the defunct LaSalle Trust and Savings bank, must stand trial on state charges of conspiring to wreck the institution. The criminal court today overruled a motion to quash the indictment. Twenty-four of the twenty-five counts were sustained.

C. B. Munday, former senior vice president of the bank, obtained leave to file an application for a change of venue from Cook county. The petition, supported by some 1,500 affidavits, set forth the troubles of William Lorimer during the last five years and cited speeches by Robert M. Switzer, defeated for the mayoralty last Tuesday, in which he referred to William Hale Thompson as "the twin brother of Mr. Lorimer." The petition recited that Mr. Switzer made these remarks to "thousands of citizens" and that they reflected upon Munday because of the latter's association with the former senator.

Today's action relates to charges directed from those returned by a federal grand jury and which had to do with the LaSalle Trust National bank, which later was transformed into the state institution which failed.

Distinction With Difference
(Judge.)
"Mrs. Crawford—Did your husband agree with you that your new husband meant was all that could be desired?"
"Mrs. Crawford—While he didn't put it exactly that way, he said that it filled the bill."

MRS. BEIDEL TELLS WOMEN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her in Health for 14 Years.

Shippensburg, Pa.—"It was several years ago that I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered terribly every month. My husband bought me a bottle of it and it helped me right away. Then after my second child was born I had a female trouble very badly and I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and in a short time was cured and have been in excellent health since. I always praise the Compound whenever I have an opportunity as I know it helped me and will help others. Lately I have given the Compound to my daughter and I wish all suffering women would take it and be convinced of its worth."—Mrs. JAMES A. BEIDEL, 113 N. Penn Street, Shippensburg, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female life we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

NEW PLANT FOR USE OF RITTMAN'S DISCOVERIES
An Oil Company Will Build Laboratory to Try Out Chemist's New Process

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 8.—Experiments are being conducted here by Dr. Walter F. Rittman, the young government chemist who has evolved methods for extracting benzol and toluol from crude petroleum. The work is being done in a temporary laboratory, but construction of a new plant, which an oil company has agreed to build in order to try out the Rittman discoveries, will begin within the next few weeks. The plant will be located near the new testing station of the United States bureau of mines. Dr. Rittman is being aided by two government experts, but he refuses to discuss his experiments, saying all announcements will be made by the secretary of the interior, Franklin K. Lane, at Washington.

ITALIAN SHIP SAILINGS ARE NOT POSTPONED
Reported Order From Rome for Delay Until April 20 Has Not Arrived

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 9.—Agents here of the Italian trans-Atlantic steamship lines have not received the orders reported to have been issued yesterday from Rome directing all Italian steamers to American ports to postpone their sailings until April 20.

The Lloyd Italian line said preparations were being made for the steamship Stambula to leave for Italian ports tomorrow. Agents of the Palermo line said their steamers would continue to sail on the published dates.

HARRY WILKINSON IS BETTER AFTER OPERATION

Doctors at St. Joseph's infirmary stated Friday that Harry Wilkinson, who was operated on Thursday night for appendicitis, is doing well and that a quick recovery is expected. Mr. Wilkinson is the son of Judge John R. Wilkinson, who died Wednesday night. Thursday Mr. Wilkinson was taken suddenly ill and an immediate operation was found necessary. The many friends of the family will be glad to learn that it was successful and that Mr. Wilkinson is resting easily today.

LANIER MONUMENT TO BE UNVEILED SATURDAY

Shaft in Piedmont Park Provided for in Will of Mrs. Livingston Mims

The monument to Sidney Lanier, recently erected in Piedmont park in pursuance of a provision in the will of the late Mrs. Livingston Mims, will be unveiled with appropriate ceremonies Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the public is cordially invited to attend. The monument is a shaft of Tennessee marble with a bronze bust of Lanier set in a niche. The inscription cut into the face of the monument underneath the niche. The monument is located on the far side of the race course directly opposite the main entrance to the park. It stands in the center of a circular terrace and around it are planted grassy cedar trees in a design drawn by George H. Criffield, the Philadelphia landscape engineer, who gave his services free. The program of the unveiling is as follows: Opening prayer—Rev. C. B. Wilmer. "Civic Generosity"—Robert P. Madge. Unveiling of monument—Ben Lee Crow, Jr. "Mrs. Mims and Her Gift to Atlanta"—Philip H. Alston. "Atlanta's Appreciation"—Mayor James G. Woodward. Lanier, the poet—Governor John M. Slaton.

ATLANTA FOLK FEARFULLY CARELESS WITH PURSES

Dr. Ward Advertises One in Journal He Found and Replaces Swam In

If anybody in Atlanta ever lost a pocketbook, Dr. A. C. Ward, pastor of the Oakdale Christian Baptist church, he knows it now. On March 28 Dr. Ward found a pocketbook, a brown leather pocketbook, containing about $4. He looked daily in the want ads in vain for the owner. And last Monday he decided to put an ad himself in The Journal. He did it and he found the owner, Mrs. Tidwell, of 315 Lee street. But he did not stop there. He brought such an avalanche of replies from other people who had lost pocketbooks that the doctor was busy for an hour or more Friday morning looking over his mail. "I'm sure it's mine," wrote one lady. "It contained a Buffalo nickel, a Lincoln penny and a dime." "So glad you found my pocketbook," wrote another. "There were a bunch of keys and six stamps inside." "Return at once, please," was a third. "And take out a suitable reward." Mrs. Tidwell was the only one who described the pocketbook to a T. Dr. Ward is convinced that there are more careless owners of pocketbooks in Atlanta than anywhere in the world and that they all read The Journal.

DR. J. H. POWELL IS HEAD OF ECLECTIC PHYSICIANS

Annual Meeting Closed Thursday Afternoon With Election of Officers for Year

The annual meeting of the Georgia Eclectic Physicians association came to a close Thursday afternoon with the election of officers for the ensuing year. These were as follows: President—Dr. J. H. Powell, Atlanta. First vice president—Dr. Luther P. Baker, Atlanta. Second vice president—Dr. Dan Griffith, Atlanta. Secretary—Dr. E. L. Daniel, Decatur. Treasurer—Dr. W. J. Allen, Atlanta. Dr. Powell and Dr. Allen were the association not to re-elect them because they did not want to be selfish with the honor, but the association wanted them to serve again and re-elected them regardless of their protest. The next annual meeting will be held in Atlanta in April, 1916.

WHITE MAN ARRESTED FOR FIRING AT NEGRO

Comments about the futility of manual labor will probably not issue again from the mouth of Tom Holley, a negro butler at Donald A. Loyless' home, 16 East Fourteenth street. Holley, according to the police, was shot at twice Thursday while on a street car for uttering such disparaging opinions. C. D. Sharkey, 27 Piedmont place, a negro, the construction work of the Connally building, is charged with the shooting. Sharkey overheard the negro's remarks. He is charged, and sent two shots from a revolver in Holley's direction. Holley jumped from the car. Sharkey is under bond charged with disorderly conduct.

NIGHT SCHOOL PUPILS GIVEN ENTERTAINMENT

The faculty and pupils of the Settlement Home night school of 76 South Boulevard were entertained Thursday evening by the educational committee of Wesley house. All the pupils enrolled during the year were invited, and although a great many had moved away since enrolling, more than 100 attended the entertainment. Games were played and refreshments were served.

HOW TO PREVENT ACID STOMACHS AND FOOD FERMENTATION.

By a Stomach Specialist.

As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach troubles possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and distress, is excessive acid in the stomach, aggravated by food fermentation. Hyperacidity irritates the stomach lining, which distends the stomach, causes heartburn, and that full bloated feeling. This held acid and food fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach lining, which is healthy and normal, but irritated almost all the time by the action of the acid, is unable to do its work properly. In all such cases—acid and food fermentation—first and only safe remedy is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking a little warm salt water immediately after eating, from one to two teaspoonfuls of bicarbonate of soda, which is dissolved in the hot and only really effective stomach and food corrective known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost immediately, and your stomach will at once begin to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bicarbonate of soda, as I have found others of some utterly lacking in purity, and of little value. —P. J. G.—(Adv.)

RECORDER JOHNSON HAS BUSY COURT SESSION

Offenders of Many Kinds Pass in Review Before Police Court Judge

Recorder Johnson had a busy time of it Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Lulu Belle Brown, 8 Ella street, charged with assaulting her grand-mother and with soiling on her sister-in-law, was fined $15.75 by Judge Johnson. She assumed a defiant air during the trial. "Under" John Blanton, an anti-bellum negro, was released with a lecture. He was charged with firing a load of birdshot at a crowd of negro boys who were tormenting him. Joe Wright, colored, a dog peddler, 32 West Linden street, was advised by the recorder to move to the country as his dogs annoyed people by their yelping. He was fined $5.75. John Smith, a negro, started the court by begging to be sent to the stockade rather than the reformatory. Despite his protest, he was remanded to the juvenile court on a disorderly conduct charge because he was shown to be less than 16 years old.

LABOR COMMITTEE ON TOUR OF THE SCHOOLS

A committee representing the Atlanta Federation of Trades embarked Friday morning upon a tour of Atlanta's public schools for the purpose of securing first hand information of conditions and reporting the same back to the federation.

The committee is composed of J. M. Shearer, chairman; James New and S. A. Albright. They expect to devote several days to their task. The investigation by this committee is in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the federation some weeks ago.

Benefit Bridge Party

Chapter No. 1 of St. John's church, of which Mrs. Albert Thornton, Jr., is president, will give a benefit bridge party at the residence of Mrs. Thornton on Peachtree street, on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Many handsome prizes will be offered and congenial parties are being made up for the afternoon. Tickets will be 50 cents and may be secured from Mrs. Thornton or members of the chapter and the same will commence at 7 o'clock.

Dinner to Bridal Party

The beautiful dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Hollins Jones Thursday evening at their home, 100 Peachtree street, was one of the most elaborate of the many affairs tendered. Miss Lila Jones and Mr. Bradley Jones, whose marriage will be solemnized Friday.

The guests assembled at 7 o'clock and after the wedding rehearsal the party was seated at two tables, a large one in the dining room and a smaller one in the adjacent sun parlor.

The central decoration of each table was a large basket of golden-chained roses, blue iris and hyacinths, with live holly berries among them. Smaller baskets of the same bright blossoms attached to the corners completed the center arrangement.

The places were indicated by blue ribbons holding cards in their tiny needles with the names in gold and were perched on the still silver goblets. The favors were blue Cupids, carrying white satin wedding slips attached to the corners.

In orchestra, placed in the hall and arranged by stately palms, rendered old roses and nosegays and wedding matches during the evening.

Miss Jones was lovely in flesh-colored satin, covered with white and pink roses, trimmed in silver lace, and her corsage was of parma violets.

Miss Mary Scott Ferguson, of Louisville, was crowned with black tulle and velvet, tiny pink ribbons edging the collar, and her corsage was of parma violets.

The brides were with a gown of white Chantilly lace and satin a corsage of parma violets.

Mrs. Robert DeLoose, of Sewanee, Tenn., was gowned in black satin and chiffon, jet-trimmed, and her corsage was of parma violets. Mrs. Samuel Jones wore gray tulle and tulle, trimmed in lace, and carried orchids.

Freckle-Face

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots.
How to Remove Easily
Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-Face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.
Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion.
Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.
Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength ointment as this is the prescription used under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—(APPL.)

HEADACHES

Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day. Other thousands suffer every week or even monthly, and still others have headaches occasionally, but not at regular intervals. The best doctor tells us that the cause of many of these headaches is not in most other cases, knowing the cause, he does not know what will remove it as to give a permanent cure. All he can do is to prescribe the usual pain relievers, which give temporary relief, but the headache returns as usual, and sometimes it is again necessary. If you suffer from headaches, no matter what their nature, take Anti-Serum Tonic and the results will be factors in the highest degree. You can obtain them at all drug stores in any quantity. Do not wait. Write or come. Ask for A-K Tablets.

SICK HEADACHES

Sick headaches, the most terrible of all diseases, lead to the most serious. When you suffer from a sick headache, you are not like two tablets, and in many cases, the attack is so violent that it is necessary to take one
A-K Tablet every two hours. The rest and comfort which follow can be obtained in any quantity. Write or come. Ask for A-K Tablets.
Genuine A-K Tablets bear the M. monogram. At all druggists.

Interesting Weddings

Simmons-Lowenheim
The wedding of Miss Gussie Lowenheim and Mr. Charles Simmons was solemnized Thursday evening in the parlors of the Ansley hotel.

The bride had a double wedding before an invited group of guests and the bride and groom were given in marriage by her father, Mr. Lewis D. Simmons. The bride made a pretty picture in her wedding robes of white satin. The veil was draped from a jilette cap and held in place with orange blossoms and she carried a large bouquet of white lilies of the valley. Miss Minnie Simmons was maid of honor and wore a gown of rose chiffon and satin and carried pink roses. Mr. Stanley Bernard was best man, and the ceremony was read by Rabbi Max. The wedding was followed by supper at which were entertained the wedding party and the out-of-town guests.

Whitaker-Smith
Miss Kate Whitaker and Mr. E. L. Smith were quietly married Thursday night at 10 o'clock at the Oakland City church. Rev. A. W. Ward officiating.

Austin-Jackson
The marriage of Miss Freddie Jackson and Mr. Samuel Dodson Austin, which was solemnized at 2:45 Stewart avenue by Rev. C. C. Ward.

Ivy-Guy
Mrs. W. R. Guy announced the marriage of her cousin, Miss Evelyn Guy, and Mr. Joseph P. Ivy, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The wedding ceremony was performed by Dr. Davis in the presence of only a few most intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ivy will make their home in Atlanta.

PLANS FOR ORGANIZING PANAMA CANAL FORCES

Secretary Garrison Will Confer With General Wood, of Eastern Department
(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 9.—After conferring with Major General Wood, commanding the eastern department of the army, who is on his way to Washington from Cristobal, Secretary Garrison will decide the time at which the Panama canal forces will be organized into a separate department of the army. At present they comprise part of the eastern department. Under the proposed arrangement, the commander of Panama troops will report directly to the secretary of war instead of through the commander of the eastern department at Governor's Island, N. Y. Secretary Garrison says he is heartily in favor of having the military of the canal a separate department, but that it might be advisable to postpone putting the scheme into operation until all of the forces planned to guard the waterway have taken station in the canal zone.

HONORS REQUISITION FOR ALLEGED SLAYER

Governor Slater on Friday honored a requisition from Governor Henderson of Alabama, for Alex Howard, a negro, under arrest at police headquarters, who is wanted in Montgomery for a murder committed in 1907.

According to Deputy Sheriff B. W. Young, of Montgomery, who came to Atlanta on the night of the murder, Howard is indicted for killing another negro named Robert Cantion, whose head he is alleged to have severed from his body with a knife.

A few days ago the Alabama authorities learned that Howard was living on the outskirts of Atlanta and upon their request City Detectives Shaw and Bullock arrested him.

CALIFORNIA LIQUOR BILL IS NOW DEAD

(By Associated Press.)
SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 9.—State regulation of the liquor traffic, as proposed by an assembly bill, which contained the recommendations of the California grape growers' association, became a dead letter last night so far as the present legislature is concerned. The public morals committee of the lower house, which has had the bill under consideration for nearly four weeks, decided to let the measure die on file.

The bill aimed to establish a state excise commission which would assume entire control of saloons and restrict their number to not more than one for every 500 residents.

WESTERN UNION WOMEN GET EIGHT-HOUR DAY

NEW YORK, April 9.—An eight-hour day in place of nine hours for women employees of the Western Union telegraph company will be put into effect in its larger offices throughout the country the first of next week. It was announced at company headquarters today. The order affects about 1,000 women on day duty. Those employed at night are working from seven to seven and a half hours. It was stated.

JUDGE PRICE EDWARDS LOSES BIG BARN BY FIRE

BUCHANAN, Ga., April 9.—At 3 o'clock this morning the barn of Judge Price Edwards was destroyed by fire. The loss was estimated at $10,000. The origin of the fire has not been determined. The loss was $10,000.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

BY THOMAS W. BURGESS.

Let all the world with music ring
Beneath the magic touch of spring.
It isn't often that Peter Rabbit is truly envious, but sometimes in the joy of spring he is. He envies the birds because they can pour out in beautiful song the joy that is in them. The only way he can express his feelings is by kicking his long legs, jumping about, and then he feels better. While that gives Peter a great deal of satisfaction it doesn't add to the joy of other people as do the songs of the birds, and you know to give joy to others is to add to your own joy. So there are times when Peter wishes he could sing.

Was wishing this very thing now as he sat on the bank of the Smiling Pool listening to the great spring choruses.
"Tra-la-lal-lal! Oo-ah-cho! Oo-ah-cho!" There's joy in the spring, for you and for me.
Sang Redwing the Blackbird from the bushes.

From over in the Green Meadows rose the clear lil of Carol the Meadow Lark, and among the alders, just where the Smiling Pool flows into the Smiling Pool, a flood of happiness was pouring about the head of Little Primrose Song Sparrow. Winnowe Bluebird's sweet, almost plaintive whistle seemed to fairly float in the air, so that it was hard to say just where it did come from. In the distance, from the top of a tree Welcome Robin was singing as if his very life depended on telling the world how nearly bursting with joy his heart was. Even Sammy Jay was adding to the chorus with his shrill notes, his usual harsh accent. As for the Smiling Pool, it seemed as if the very water itself sang for a mighty chorus of clapping voices from unseen singers from all around the bank of the Smiling Pool. Peter knew who those singers were, although look as he would he could see none of them. They were hylas, the tiny cousins of Stickytoes the Tree Toad.

"Listening to all these joyous voices Peter forgot for a time what he had brought him to the Smiling Pool. But Jimmy Skunk and Uncle Billy Pussan did not forget. They were still humming for Old Mr. Toad.
"Well, old Mr. Dreamer, have you found him yet?" asked Jimmy Skunk, stealing up behind Peter and poking him in the back.
Peter came to himself with a guilty start. "No," said he, "I was just listening and wishing that I could sing, too. Don't you ever wish you could sing, Jimmy?"
"No," replied Jimmy. "I never want to waste time singing I could do things it was meant I should do. It's funny where Old Mr. Toad is. He said that he was coming down here to sing, and Redwing the Blackbird seemed to be expecting him. Now I don't believe he can sing, but if he can't sing it's up to us to find out. I've looked everywhere I can think of without finding him, but I don't believe in giving up without another try. Stop your dreaming and come help us hunt for Old Mr. Toad."

So Peter stopped his dreaming and joined in the search. Now there was laughing, Brook ran into the Smiling Pool, nor Uncle Billy had thought of looking. In fact, it hadn't entered their heads. They just took it for granted that Old Mr. Toad was somewhere on the bank. Presently Peter came to a place where the bank was very low and the water was shallow for quite a little distance out in the Smiling Pool. From out that shallow water came a rippling voice of a hyla and Peter stopped to stare, trying to see the tiny singer. Suddenly he jumped right up in the air with surprise. There was a familiar voice he had heard so often. Peter had discovered Old Mr. Toad.

REFUSES TO CONDEMN OPERATION OF "JITNEYS"

Safety First Federation Says Each City Must Solve Problem for Itself

NEW YORK, April 9.—City officials from the south and middle west who came here to persuade the Safety First Federation to condemn "jitney" buses as a menace to traffic, returned home today without accomplishing their purpose. After hearing their arguments the federation's executive committee unanimously voted that this method of transportation had not been in operation long enough to warrant the making of a referendum to control it. It was held each community should work out the problem for itself.

Charles M. Talbert, director of streets of St. Louis, said use of these buses had grown to such an extent in that city that the city council feared to attempt seriously to regulate them. William D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Street and Electric Railway Employees of America, said that association was planning a nation-wide campaign against use of the buses because street car employees were being dismissed owing to lack of business. He said the street car men would demand that drivers of the buses be required to give bond to indemnify victims of accidents they caused.

CAPT. ROBERT OSBORNE NOW MUCH IMPROVED

The many friends of Captain Robert S. Osborne, for twenty-seven years a member of the Atlanta police department, will be pleased to learn that he has recovered sufficiently from his recent serious illness to leave the hospital and go to his home at Kilmear station on the Central railroad beyond Hapeville.

Captain Osborne, who made a magnificent record as a Confederate soldier in the war between the states, was for twenty-five years on the police force of the city and for two years a member of the city detective department. About a year ago he retired and moved to Kilmear station. Several weeks ago he became ill and was brought to the Piedmont sanitarium in Atlanta.

at Marvin-church. Rev. Dr. Hemphill officiated and the interment was in the church yard.

MR. SOLOMON SHULMAN.—Mr. Solomon Shulman, seventy-one years old, a native of Russia, residing at 800 East Ellis street, died at a private sanitarium Thursday evening. The body was removed to Greenberg-Roth's chapel where funeral services were held Friday morning at 11 o'clock. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

CHAIRS OF SHERMAN AND GARFIELD PRESERVED.—WASHINGTON, April 9.—The headquarters chair used by General William T. Sherman from 1869 to 1890 while commander-in-chief of the United States army, and the arm chair used by President Garfield during his term as the White House have been added to the historic furniture collection of the American university here. John La Monte Hurst, of Denver, son of the late Bishop Hurst, donated the chairs, which are authenticated by original official documents.

MIDSHIPMEN TO STUDY ONE FOREIGN LANGUAGE.—WASHINGTON, April 9.—Midshipmen at the naval academy will have to study both one foreign language in the future as the result of the approval by Secretary Daniels of a recommendation by the superintendent of the academy changing the course of modern languages.

The change was brought about by the failure of the midshipmen to master two foreign languages in the time available for this study. Half of the midshipmen will study French and the remainder Spanish.

Kayser Silk Gloves

wear so much better

The very foundation of the Kayser Gloves—the Kayser Silk—is pure and strong. Fine workmanship alone could not make Kayser Silk Gloves wear longer if the silk itself were not right. In 30 years of silk spinning, we have learned how to make use of a heavier pure silk thread (not weighted), without interfering with the delightful coolness of the gloves. This makes Kayser Silk Gloves wear so much longer that millions of women have learned that the one thing to look for in a silk glove is the trademark "Kayser."

Two clasped gloves are always 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and up; twelve and sixteen button lengths are always 50c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and up. The name "Kayser" is in the hem and with each pair is a guarantee ticket that the tips will outwear the gloves.

Leo Houck Gets Decision Over K. O. Brown; Alabama Plays Jackets Today

Leo Houck Gets Decision Over Greek Battler

Knockout Brown Unable to Get by Defense of Easterner. Latter Worked Straight Left Effectively Throughout Match. Budd and Young Fight Draw

A clever defense, and a superior knowledge of boxing landed Leo Houck a winner over George Knucknott Brown in their ten-round mill at the Biou Thursday night. At the end of the bout both boys were standing in the middle of the ring smashing at each other with a vengeance, and the chances are that both would have been able to double the distance of the match had conditions otherwise been permitted.

In the matter of clean punches landed, Houck had a wide margin on his Greek foe. The Lancaster battler struck a straight left into Brown's face so often that all count was lost. Only now and then did the latter block or duck the lead. In the meantime Brown was directing his attention chiefly to hammering Houck about the kidneys. He played on the easterner's loins throughout the battle, but the latter assimilated the punishment readily, and even with the stiff punches that Brown was landing never appeared to show any ill results.

In the clinches, and much of the time was spent, this way, Houck's good effort, and almost invariably landed it as Brown fought. The blow of the free was delivered, when Houck put a right hook to Brown's midriff in the eighth as the Greek was rushing into a clinch. It was a corker and stopped the surly champion for an instant.

Owing to the style of mugging pursued, there was but little clean open fighting. Houck was working his straight left in good effect, and almost invariably landed it as Brown fought. The blow of the free was delivered, when Houck put a right hook to Brown's midriff in the eighth as the Greek was rushing into a clinch. It was a corker and stopped the surly champion for an instant.

The mill at times looked slow, and the crowd voiced its disapproval. However, it should be remembered that the two battlers are millionaires, and are hardly expected to show the flashy speed of a couple of lightweight or bantams. Furthermore, each boy knew the other carried a wallop that might do business at any time, and it would have been a reckless stunt to plow in blindly the hopes of beating the other fellow to the punch.

Houck pursued the same line of battle throughout. While Brown was leading, he contented himself with blocking the Greek, and then about the eighth left. Late in the battle, Brown began to swing a few from the floor. But he had little chance to land as Houck ducked, block or sidestepped them with ease.

In addition to the main body the card was replete with other interesting matches. Battling Budd and Kid Young were eight fast rounds. In this pair furnished all the action that could be desired. Young showed improvement over his fight here a year ago. Budd was a very creditable fighter. But was the same cool young man that he was in previous battles here. This pair had the home yelling loudly from first to last.

Johnny Underwood and Kid Diamond worked six rounds and the former was given the decision. Diamond was making his first appearance in the recent fought several matches in Memphis recently. He knew but little of the game, but showed ability to punish punishment that was amazing. Throughout the match he seemed to lower his head and tear in. And every time Underwood stepped back and clapped him on the forehead, Diamond lost, but when he learned a little more of the game he will be a tough one to beat. He has his hand all right.

The best house of the year saw the match, and the card offered was sufficient to please. Action marked every battle. Still is to be congratulated.

Illini Win First From Commodores

ASHVILLE, April 9.—Illinois continued its winning streak Thursday by defeating Vanderbilt in the first of a series of games here. The score was 5 to 1. The visitors counted all of their runs in one inning, and the Commodores, who were out of the game in the first inning, were unable to score. The Illini made a comeback in the second inning, when they scored three runs. The Commodores, who were out of the game in the first inning, were unable to score. The Illini made a comeback in the second inning, when they scored three runs.

Rome Moguls See Reds Play Here

Among the baseball fans who have been watching the Havana Reds in their two games with the Cuban Stars is President A. A. Fite and Manager Alf Harrison of the Rome club. They came down with a view of looking over the Cuban as prospective material for the Rome club. However, no deals have been closed for any players. Several of the Reds will play professional ball in the states this year. The Birmingham club of the New York state league alone gets three—Pitcher Fred Second, Baseman E. Gonzales and Rightfielder Lujan.

Huey Challenges Billiard Champion

CHICAGO, April 9.—William Huey, of Chicago, runner-up in the recent world's championship three cushion billiard tournament, has challenged George Moore, of New York City, the title holder, for the championship.

The match will be decided in three blocks of fifty points each and will either be played in New York or in Chicago late in the summer. Moore reserves the right to select the place at which the match shall be played. Huey lost to Moore in the play-off to break the tie for the championship here two weeks ago by three points.

Duffy Shades White. BUFFALO, N. Y., April 9.—Jimmy Duffy, of Lockport, and Charley White, of Chicago, fought ten rounds here last night. Newspaper opinion gave Duffy the decision. Duffy was knocked down in the first round. He evened the score in the next by flooring White.

BALLADE OF FIGHTING MEN.

Where are the boys that swayed

The crashing jabs that each essayed

For cheering crowds to see and know?

Old John L.'s slam against the foe?

Jim Corbett's skill amid the brawl?

The brave—the big—the fast—the slow?

'Into the Night go one and all!

War gods that led the Big Parade—

Where Ruby Robert got the dough?

Or out the reef cavalcade

Where Hig Jazul ruled the fighting show?

Hail—Fighting Men—in battle glow!

No answer echoes to our call.

Save on the far wind's undertow—

'Into the Night go one and all!

The curtain swings—the slam is made—

Far while the cheering, to and fro:

Fame stalks across the Open Glade

For stalwarts forming, row on row:

Jack Johnson? None might overthrow

This sabbie king's eternal thrall—

'Untill his time had come to know

'Into the Night go one and all!

So one by one they come and go,

For heed amid the laureled stall:

Fame's vanished ghosts that whisper low

'Into the Night go one and all!

In answer to Col. William Allen White's late query, "What's the matter with Kansas?" we should answer, in effect now, about as follows: "Practically nothing."

THE WEST VS. THE EAST.

In the victory of Jess Willard the west gives vent to another champion, leaving the east still struggling in the throes of defeat.

Not since John Lawrence Sullivan started from Boston and put the east upon Pudge's map has the Atlantic section produced a heavy-weight champion.

Corbett came from California and upset John L. Fitzsimmons started from another land, but after Fitz came Jeffries, another Californian, and after Jeff came Jack Johnson, from Texas. And Johnson is followed by Willard, of Kansas.

Of the five American-born champions—Sullivan, Corbett, Jeffries, Johnson and Willard—four came out of the west and only one from the east—leaving the west a percentage of 80, which isn't so bad as percentages go.

THE GAME'S ALLOTMENT.

The west, including the middle west, has had most of the athletic champs and stars in all divisions. In the light-weight division, Jimmy Britt, Young Corbett, Bat Nelson, Ad Volgas and Willie Ritchie all came from the sunset side of the Alleghenies.

But in other sportive industries the two sections are well balanced—especially so in baseball, where the east, if anything, has the edge.

CALIFORNIA ON TOP.

If any one state has produced a greater variety of championship talent than any other the award belongs to California—which leads by a rugged margin in fighting and lawn tennis and stands well up in other lines.

Part of this is due to climate, which permits outdoor play and training twelve months out of the year.

HALF JABS.

In the annals of all games under the sun there is but one unbeaten champ—viz. Old Doc Time.

Kid Youth has given the Old Doc a number of great battles, but only until the Old Doc hit his proper stride toward the finish.

1914 wasn't the only tough year on champions. The hoodoo which began to operate for the title holders around this date last season is still at work, if certain rumors drifting lately out of Havana are to be credited. Unless some one checks the tide it will soon be impossible to get a champ to make a competitive appearance unless surrounded by a steel cage.

Spring exhibition games mean little, but if you recall the Giant machine of pennant winning years there was no minor league club in sight to hold it in check. Two successive defeats may be used as a bunch by those desiring a foundation to work on.

What with Jess Willard and Walter Johnson, Kansas is firmly planted on the sportive map at last; and beyond even this the spirit of Charlie Nation is sweeping the courts of Europe, from Buckingham Palace to the last Siberian outpost.

"Willard has never taken a drink in his life." If he can say that five years from now the statement will still be made from the championship throne. The big test will come when the Hip-hop starts and the Red Way clamors for the champion's company.

Alabama Here To Battle Tech

Teams Play Two Games and One of Them May Be Eliminated From Race for Southern Title—Game Starts at 3:30 o'Clock

With the probability that the games will eliminate one of the two from a clear claim to the southern baseball championship, the University of Alabama begins this afternoon on Grant field a series of two games with the Yellow Jackets. In case of an even break, the claims of the two teams will of course remain the same after the series but there is a possibility that one may grab both contests, thereby putting the other down for the count.

Alabama is bringing a strong line-up. The Tuscaloosans had a corking good team last season, and they have several old men back this year. Among the brilliant stars of the outfit are Cargile, the flashy infielder, and Captain "Pete" Wells, who does practically all of the catching. Coach Graves has been working with the bunch long enough to have them playing the game in jam-up style, they expect to make a hard fight for both games. He is expected to use Smith in the box in the opener with Wells catching. The Jackets will probably depend on Senter in the opener with Morrison working back of the plate. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Allen Features Battle With Long Homerun Drive

BY INNIS BROWN

"Rip" Allen, solitary southpaw of Billy Smith's flinging corps, mused up a rather peculiar game of baseball at Ponce de Leon Thursday afternoon. In fact the portcullis tore into an otherwise good record for the afternoon. You might say that "Rip" spoiled the game, except for the fact that the Crackerjacks won, and any time the home team wins it is a good ball game, as ninety-eight and two-tenths of the fans see it. The final count showed 2 to 1.

But Rip certainly wrecked that mail-bag. Being a pitcher you might think that "Rip" breathed out to the mound and whizzed "em through for nine innings without allowing the Crackerjacks to break off a safe hit. Again it might be supposed that "Rip" traveled at break-neck speed for most of the distance and then blew just in time to lose a record of smearing it over the Reds with a homey performance. But he didn't do any of these.

What "Rip" did was to paste one of Senior Pease's fast ones between right and center for the circuit, loping in home at his leisure. And the remarkable part about the stunt was the fact that save for this lone run, neither team was able to get over a marker that was not vitiated by errors. Three others were scored by the two teams and errors figured in all of them. Hence just to show that he ought to have won that old-ball game anyway, "Rip" squashed the first ball pitched him in the eighth clear up against a stack of lumber alongside the fence in deep center field. In spite of the fact that, when it comes to speed, "Rip" scolded, who chased the drive down and a Jack rabbit bit the same, "Rip" stamped over the plate under wraps.

That's about all there was to the ball game. The Crackerjacks had previously counted two runs mostly on errors, though a bit of hitting by Tullios back contributed to the program, and which was badly tainted with errors. But the end has not yet been told of that drive. It did nothing more than count one run for the club on the field but gave an on-into the episode, a good-natured color by spun out by the gang in the clubhouse after the fact had ended.

Allen—Still puffing from that spirit, who had pitched an inning since, "Well, I wish the club didn't hit em, no? Who's the hitting pitcher on this club, Rip?" Pearson—Now you got that stuff, fellows? (The rest of the slapping corps rang in on the chorus, only Pearson bent on the lines). Listen to that crazy left-hander.

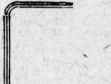

Thompson—Why, the lucky nut! Nothing.

Prep Leaguers Start Up Today

With three games on tap, the local prep baseball league will officially opened this afternoon. For over a month, ever since the basketball league ended in such a whirlwind finish, the six clubs in the circuit have been putting their baseball material through the paces, with the result that all of them will start in the pink of condition.

While there is no possible forecasting just how the bunch will wind up, Boy's High, Tech High and Ponce de Leon are tremendously good, and it will take some hard hustling on the part of any of the others to nose them out. Mariet, Donald Fraser and Georgia Military academy are by no means out of the running, and it will not be a surprise at all if any of the three turn the tables, and mop the floor.

The schedule runs from now until May 11, except being played every Tuesday and Friday of each week. Each club will play ten games.

The games to be played this afternoon, starting at 3:30, are:

Boy's High vs. Georgia Military academy, at College Park.

Pearson vs. Tech High, at Sleepy Hollow, behind Grant field.

Mariet vs. Donald Fraser, at Deasur.

Twenty-five cents admission fee will be charged to any of the games.
